V103's Connie Williams New Roseland Mammography Spokeswoman

The "New" Roseland Hospital will be featured in an energetic mammography awareness campaign led by V103's Connie Williams starting February 11th. "Pink is the New Rose" will feature the passionate and vivacious Connie who recently had her mammogram at RCH and took advantage of the Phillips MicroDose Mammography System.

The campaign will be designed to promote the recent $200,000 grant from the Chicago Department of Public Health to provide mammograms for uninsured women in the City of Chicago.

Connie has the highest rated radio program with African-American women in Chicago and her campaign will include 15 and 30 second radio spots on V103FM and 1390AM, as well as targeted emails and a CBS Local Page.

Please join Connie for a special "Mammography Day" that will feature music, food and prizes from the V103:

"Unanimous Approval" for Perinatal Redesignation

On January 31, 2014 Roseland Community Hospital received a "unanimous approval" from the Illinois Department of Public Health Perinatal Redesignation Survey Team.

Accolades were offered after a thorough inspection of the RCH obstetrics unit, policies & procedures, program data, and complete services and competencies. This success is a tremendous affirmation of RCH's positive steps on the quality journey and the new strategic plan for a bright future.

Somi Nagaraj was the lead on this project and received several votes of confidence from the survey team. RCH is also especially grateful to Dr. Joy West, Chair of the Department, and Glennell Conaway. Everyone on the team played an invaluable role.

The survey team specifically referenced RCH's 2014 Strategic Plan based on 5 Pillars: Patients, Physicians, Employees, Community and Collaboration. There were plenty of other positives, which greatly outweighed the opportunities for improvement which will also be highlighted in the coming IDPH letter of approval.

Egan Signs Long Term Contract as Roseland CEO

In a sign that Roseland Community Hospital has transitioned from crisis to sustainability, Chief Restructuring Officer Tim Egan has agreed to become the safety-net health care provider's President & Chief Executive Officer after signing a contract that extends through 2017.

"The Roseland community deserves access to quality health care and the success we have had in just six months of restructuring is the foundation needed for a great future," Egan said. "My career and life have always been mission driven. Creating a 'new' Roseland Hospital is certainly a rewarding mission."

Crain's Chicago and The Daily Whale provided coverage of the announcement.

"Mr. Egan has shown an unmatched dedication and energy in the fight to make our hospital a truly sustainable entity," RCH Board Member and Chair of the RCH Board External Affairs Committee Melinda Kelly said. "He has solidified relationships with the physicians, greatly improved employee morale, personally visits with patients and refocused attention on providing quality care."
