

1st Ever Religious Community Leaders Council Collaboration Awards Dr. Patrice Frederick Earns Standing Ovation

PRESS RELEASE—Chicago, January 28, 2016 3:30PM CST

The 1st Ever Religious Community Leaders Council Community Collaboration Awards reception was held at the New Roseland Community Hospital on Monday, Jan. 25 and hosted by house Chaplain Rev. Reginald O'Dell.

The event honored Pastor A. Edward Davis, Jr. from St. John Missionary Baptist Church and Elder Milton Oliver from Ambassador for Christ Church.

Pastor Davis and Elder Oliver have been spiritual leaders in the Greater Roseland Community for decades and were recognized for their contributions in support of the New RCH.

Dr. Patrice Frederick, Medical Director of Surgery addressed the crowd using a blend of scripture and her personal mission.

"In the wilderness," Dr. Frederick said, "God provided for the children of Israel because He knew their purpose. We are here to provide non-discriminative healthcare with outstanding quality because the people of Roseland are a people with purpose. This community deserves respect and access to quality care with good outcomes. Please tell others that there is a change at the New Roseland Community Hospital."

Elder Oliver, after receiving his award, enthusiastically complimented New RCH President & CEO Tim Egan on the recent addition of Dr. Frederick who received a standing ovation after her address.

"Not only can Dr. Frederick deliver quality of care," Elder Oliver said, "she can handle a patient's spiritual needs. When you have a doctor talking about the Word of the Lord, you've really got something."

The New Roseland Community Hospital is the community's integrated and coordinated healthcare choice, where professional caregivers provide guidance on the path to recovery and overall wellness.
